

Lamar University is committed to providing a welcoming learning environment for pregnant and parenting students through policies that protect academic rights guaranteed to these students under federal and state law.

This policy applies to students who are pregnant and parenting students. Parenting student is defined as a student who is the parent or legal guardian of a child under 18 years of age.

Lamar University and its faculty and staff instructional materials and video recordings of lectures are made available to any other student with an excused absence.

Lamar University shall provide reasonable accommodations to a pregnant student, including accommodations that:

1. would be provided to a student with a temporary medical condition; or
2. are related to the health and safety of the student and the student's unborn child, such as allowing the student to maintain a safe distance from substances, areas, and activities known to be hazardous to pregnant women or unborn children.
